CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

On behalf of our Show Committee, let me welcome you to our Show.

We hope you find this an enjoyable and relaxing day out, which, in a world that seems to be full of troubles, is no bad thing. However, what may feel like the most peaceful place on earth has a past that was quite the opposite.

The Coquet Valley sits in a strategic position on the border between England and Scotland, and the ruins of Harbottle Castle bear testament to the terror and warfare that swept through this area during the 12th and 13th centuries. Then, from the 14th century, arose the Border Reivers, whose lawlessness and feuding reached their height in the 16th century. They wrought havoc across the land, with clan families such as Armstrong, Robson, Charlton and Selby fighting what today would be recognised as a brutal form of guerrilla warfare. Happily, things have moved on and we're all friends now - more or less! What we are left with is an area steeped in history and well worth a visit.

Back to the Show. Once life had settled down and we had all stopped killing each other, little fairs and shows throughout the Borderlands began to grow and prosper. The conflict became one of cheese scones and Blackface ewes, although it was still entered into with deadly serious intent.

At our Show you'll find local crafts, sheep, traditional music, and an Industrial Tent that displays some of the finest produce in the valley. You can also watch the Cumberland Wrestling, take part in quoits and let the kids uphold the family honour in the Children's Sports. Our tea tent is there to refresh you and with one of the most idyllic settings in Northumberland, we are sure you will find yourself at peace.

We hope you have a wonderful day and enjoy everything Harbottle Show has to offer.

And in this years music tent!

This year we have again brought you a superb line up in the music tent!

From the harmonious heartlands of Scotland and the musical metropolis of Melbourne, Australia Good Guy Hank brings blistering bluegrass country guitar, lightning mandolin, virtuoso fiddle and three part harmonies. Look forward to music influenced by Hank Williams through to Elbow, and Drive by Truckers.

Dave Gray on button accordion and Jon Doran on fiddle/voice are two of Newcastle's most versatile folk musicians - their combined shows are an energetic whirlwind of enthusiasm, blending upbeat rhythms and music that will resonate deeply with the audience.

And be sure not to miss those fabulous men and renowned scallywags who comprise The VoiceMale Folk Choir. They return once again to the show and with their dulcet tones, shanties and tales of yesteryear are sure to have you singing along whilst they project their collective lusty voices in the general direction of the Drake Stone!

TRADE & CRAFT TENT

A variety of local crafts will be demonstrated and on display along with all sorts of trade stands from the area. Come and browse to find some special gifts or even an early Christmas present.

THANK YOU

Once again we would like to thank everyone who has supported the show this year by giving generous donations, supporting the fundraising quiz nights & raffles, offering sponsorship or advertising. It's what helps keep the Show going.
